8 Reading

Before Reading

What do you know about calligraphy? Can you write calligraphy?

ART OF THE PEN: ARABIC CALLIGRAPHY

This summer, the Islamic Heritage Museum is proud to present a special exhibit called Art of the Pen: Arabic Calligraphy. Admire the beautiful art of Arabic calligraphy and Holy Qur'anic verse. Learn about the history of calligraphy and its development.

Calligraphy and the Holy Qur'an

The word calligraphy means "beautiful writing." Arabic calligraphy has beautiful lines and shapes. But the true beauty of calligraphy is that it is used to write the holy words of the Qur'an. That is how and why the art of Arabic calligraphy started.

The first Arabic system of writing (script) was very simple. Then, with the spread of Islam, there was a need for a more expressive form of writing to communicate Allah's words in the Holy Qur'an.

It was important to have a clear script that all the people of Islam could easily read and understand.

Styles

Today, there are six main styles of Arabic calligraphy. One of the oldest styles is Kufic script. It has straight, geometric letters that make it easy to cut into wood or stone. This is the script calligraphers used to write the first copies of the Holy Qur'an.

The other main styles are cursive and have connecting letters. Thuluth is a long and elegant script that is often used to write the headings of surahs, Holy Qur'anic chapters. It is also the script of the Saudi Arabian flag. Naskh and Ruq'ah are popular scripts that are common in printing and handwriting. They are generally smaller and easier to read and write. Farsi or Ta'liq, which means "hanging," is an old script that is sometimes used in literature. Diwani is a very decorative style that is often seen on greeting cards.

After Reading

1. What is so beautiful about calligraphy?
2. Why did the Prophet Mohammed, peace be upon him, need a clear system of writing?
3. How is Kufic script different from cursive scripts?
4. Where can you see examples of Thuluth script?

Discussion

Do you know about historic examples of calligraphy? Tell about them.

9 Writing

- A. Think about a museum, performance, or sports event that you attended. Try to remember as many sensory details as you can. Write notes in the chart.

Sights	Sounds	Smells/Tastes	Touch/Feelings

Writing Corner

1. A narrative story usually describes the events in the order that they happened. It describes what the writer feels and senses, so the reader can imagine being there.
2. Use time words to show sequence: when, as, while, before, and after. If a time word begins the sentence, there is a comma after the time clause.
3. An exclamation point (!) shows strong feelings, like the writer is shouting.
4. Use quotation marks (" ") around the exact words that a person says.

- B. Read about Faisal's experience at a horse race. Learn the meaning of the words in the box. Then, complete the paragraph with the words.

nervous crowd thundered shook silent paraded excited cheered

Last month, I went to a horse race for the first time. Before the race, my father and I walked by the stables to see the horses. While the jockeys (1) _____ past us, one of the horses jumped up on its back legs. The horse, named Prince, was very (2) _____, but the jockey looked confident. I said to my father, "That's the winner!" Then we pushed through the noisy (3) _____ to find a place near the track. The horses were ready to start, and suddenly the crowd was (4) _____. "They're off," shouted the announcer. The horses (5) _____ past us, and it felt like the ground (6) _____. They disappeared around the track, so I looked in my binoculars. Prince was in front by a neck! I started to jump because I was so (7) _____. As they crossed the finish line, the crowd (8) _____. Prince was the winner by two lengths!

- C. Write about an interesting museum, performance, or sports event that you attended. Use your notes from the chart to describe what you sensed and how you felt.

10 Project

Check on the events in your town. Choose one, and make a brochure about it. Present your brochure to the class.

11 Form, Meaning and Function

Intensifiers

We use adverbs like very, quite, really, pretty, and extremely to make adjectives stronger. These adverbs are normally placed before the adjective.

It's a very interesting exhibit.	Everyone was pretty excited.
It's a really interesting exhibit.	Everyone was extremely excited.
It's quite an interesting exhibit.	Everyone was quite excited.

Note: When there is a singular noun, quite goes before the article.

Intensifiers with Strong Adjectives

Strong adjectives are words like:

enormous; huge = very big	tiny = very small
brilliant = very clever	certain = very sure
excellent; wonderful; great = very good	awful; terrible = very bad fantastic; amazing; awesome = very good	delicious = very tasty

We do not use very with strong adjectives. We can use adverbs like absolutely, completely, totally, really, pretty, and quite.

The cake is very tasty.	The cake is absolutely delicious.
Are you really sure?	Are you totally/quite certain?

A. Circle the correct word(s). In some cases, both words are correct.

The new pizzeria is (1. extremely / completely) popular. It's a (2. really / very) great place to spend the evening with friends. The decoration is (3. pretty / completely) awesome. The walls and the floor are (4. totally / quite) red, and the lights make it look like you're inside a volcano. The waiters are (5. absolutely / extremely) friendly, and the service is (6. very / quite) fast. There's a (7. quite / really) huge selection of pizzas on the menu, and the prices are (8. very / quite) reasonable. The Red Hot special is (9. absolutely / totally) delicious. So, invite your friends. It's (10. absolutely / very) fantastic!

B. Rewrite the sentences with different intensifiers and adjectives.

1. The exhibit was very good. We had a really good time.

2. The exhibit was very bad. We had a very bad time.

---

3. The food was very bad, and the service was very bad.

---

4. The pizza was very good, and the service was very good.

---

5. That's a very good idea. It's very clever.

---

What does it mean to be “cool”? Discuss with a partner what things you can do to be cool.

So You Want to Be COOL

Are you worried about your clothes?

Are you nervous because you have to speak in front of the class?

Are you sad because someone said something bad about you?

Are you unhappy because you don't have many friends?

Teenage Express magazine offers some ideas on how to be cool.

- Think of your good qualities. List them. You're going to find that you have a lot of them!
- Take care of your appearance and your clothes. Keep your hair clean and well-groomed. Your clothes don't have to be expensive. They just have to look nice. Sometimes a comfortable, classic look is better than the latest extreme style.
- Compliment people and smile a lot. Meet new people and be friendly to them. Don't be shy. If you want to meet someone, go ahead and introduce yourself. People usually like an outgoing person.
- Be very nice to everyone. But if someone bothers you, defend yourself and say what you think. Never let anyone bring you down. Stand up for yourself.
- Ignore negative things people say about you. Be confident in who you are.
- Be yourself at all times, because trying to be someone else is not good. Being cool doesn't mean being someone you are not.
- Being cool does not mean being silly or stupid. So study hard and be smart. Learn useful information about a lot of topics. Your friends are going to respect and admire you for that.
- Be proud of your qualities and who you are. Remember, being cool is mostly a matter of attitude.

He waved to me, and I went back into the house to watch the six o'clock news. A few minutes later, I heard a loud explosion. This time I ran outside because I was really scared. There was a lot of smoke, and I couldn't see anything. Then I heard a cry for help. "Over here! I'm stuck in the fence. The gas tank caught fire, and the explosion threw me across the yard." Mr. Dooley was quite upset, but fortunately he wasn't badly hurt.

8 Reading

Before Reading

What do you know about the common cold and the flu?

Atchoo! Is It a Cold or the Flu?

When your nose is blocked, your eyes are watery, your throat is sore, you are coughing and sneezing constantly, and you are shivering, then you have influenza, or the flu. Or is it just a common cold? The symptoms of both a cold and the flu are very similar, and very often the two illnesses are confused.

People get both illnesses in more or less the same way. A person sneezing or coughing transmits the infection through the air. Sometimes people with the virus wipe their noses or eyes with their fingers, and then touch objects around them, such as a doorknob, a telephone, a keyboard, or any other everyday object. Other people come into contact with these items with viruses on them, and pick up the viruses that way.

Colds usually last for five to seven days and are caused by viruses. The body's own defense mechanisms need to fight the viruses. Unfortunately, there are more than 80 different constantly mutating rhinoviruses. So vaccination against colds is impossible. Medicines provide temporary relief from symptoms, but they cannot cure the cold.

The flu has the same symptoms as the traditional cold. Additional symptoms are a high fever and severe muscle aches and pains. The effects of the flu can also be far more serious. It can cause pneumonia and kill its victims. In the past, the flu killed more people than any other viral disease. For example, 20 million people of all ages died in the 1919 flu epidemic. It actually affected younger people more than old because their bodies didn't have defenses against the virus. Nowadays, there are vaccines for the flu that protect from some viruses. Unfortunately, new viruses appear all the time.

After Reading

1. Write three things that are the same about colds and the flu.
2. How is the flu different from colds?

8 What's Wrong?

9 Writing

- A. Read about heat exhaustion. Have a class discussion. What are the symptoms? Are there any other symptoms? Do you agree with the advice? Do you have any other advice?

Do you feel dizzy and weak? Are you sweating a lot? Do your muscles ache? Do you feel like vomiting? When you spend too many hours in the hot sun, you can suffer from heat exhaustion. For relief, follow this advice.

- You should get out of the sun. Find a cool or air-conditioned place.
- Take a cool shower or bath. You can also spray cool water on your skin.
- You should drink plenty of water, but don't drink quickly. You should drink small amounts slowly.
- You should rest. Lie down and put your feet up. This prevents shock or fainting.
- If the symptoms continue, you should see a doctor.

Writing Corner

1. Bullet points (•) help make a list clear and simple to read. For example, when there is a list of ingredients in a recipe or a list of symptoms for an illness.
2. When there is a list of instructions or steps to follow in a certain order, it is better to use numbers, and not bullet points.
3. With short phrases or words, do not use punctuation after each bullet point. When there is a complete sentence or sentences, use the correct punctuation.

- B. What are some common symptoms of the flu? Write them in the chart. How can you relieve the symptoms? Write notes in the advice column.

Symptom	Advice

- C. What should you do when you have the flu? Write about it. Use your notes from the chart and other ideas from this unit. Use bullet points for the symptoms or the advice.

What kinds of chores do you do at home?
Who decides the chores you do?

Someone Has to Do It!

Parents often complain that they always have to tell their teenage children to do their chores. Parents think their kids are irresponsible. On the other hand, teens feel their parents are always nagging and complaining.

A major problem is that parents think that teens need to do the chores on their schedule, while the teens think, "Why do I have to do it now, when I can do it later?" This usually leads to unnecessary conflict between teens and their parents.

The general questions parents usually ask about chores are the following: Should teens have them? Should teens and parents agree on a list of chores together? Should teens have freedom to decide when to do them?

One mother says, "My daughter and I make a list of chores each week. That way she can organize her time for schoolwork, housework, and free time, too." Another parent only gives his son pocket money after he has done all his chores around the house. He says, "No chores, no money. It makes teens responsible for earning their money, rather than just simply giving them an allowance." Some teenagers complain, "My friends don't have to do chores, so why should I?"

Normally parents expect their teenage sons and daughters to help around the house. But parents and teens have to agree on the kind of chores and when the teens have to do them. One mom's son wants to do his chores after he goes out with his friends, but then he's usually too tired. Another mother only lets her daughter see her friends after she finishes all the housework. But housework never ends! So what's the solution?

Teens and parents have to reach a compromise. There has to be common sense on both sides, don't you think?

After Reading

Write two lists: (1) What parents think about teens' chores, and (2) What teens think about their chores.

Discussion

In your opinion, how can teens and parents reach a compromise about chores?

- Pronouns help avoid repeating the same word or words.
One mother lets her daughter see her friends after she finishes the housework.
- Demonstrative pronouns like this and that can refer to one word or a whole idea.
Some teenagers refuse to do their chores. This can often lead to conflict.

Before Reading

Look at the photos below. What do you think people can buy in these places?

The Best Place to Shop—and Be!

In an age where you can buy almost anything on the Internet, thousands of people all over the world still prefer to do their shopping in traditional places. In general, shoppers look for bargains, and the best prices are usually found in street markets. Many markets around the world have a similar lively atmosphere and sell nearly anything you can imagine from jewelry and clothes, fresh produce, spices, and fish, to carpets, electronics, and livestock.

Riyadh has some of the world's most beautiful modern shopping malls, with designer boutiques and brand names. But if you're looking for real bargains, you'll head for some of the traditional souqs in town. Haraj* is a secondhand market just east of the city. Impress your friends and dress in Chanel and Armani for a fraction of the price, or get that new kitchen appliance you've been dreaming of. Many of the so-called "used" items aren't used at all—just don't tell anyone where you bought it.

Al-Bat'ha District is home to many traditional markets. Whether you are looking for electronics and watches, jewelry, perfume, furniture, car accessories, bicycles, or food—they sell it all at often ridiculous prices. For more traditional goods, antiques, and souvenirs check out Al-Thumairi near the Al-Masmak Fort. This is particularly popular with tourists. And nearby is the Al-Deira market where everything is worth its weight in gold, literally. Looking for a camel? They come in all shapes, colors, and sizes at Souq Al-Jimal.

Visitors go to the local souqs for more than just shopping. You can see and meet an amazing mixture of people from around the world. Many feel that the cultural experience is the main attraction of these markets.

FYI***

Haraj is a large market where people buy and sell both new and used items, such as furniture, carpets, computers, electronics, car parts, clothing, and toys.

After Reading

2. Does Haraj only sell used items?
3. Which 3 words or phrases in the text mean low cost or inexpensive?
4. What is the most interesting attraction of traditional markets?

10 It's a Bargain!

9 Writing

A. Read the text. What are the advantages of shopping online?

Personally, I can't stand shopping in department stores or malls. They're too crowded, and it takes too long to find what you want. You buy something and then a week later, you see it on sale. I prefer to do my shopping online. It's convenient, quick, and easy. When you know what you want, it takes just a few minutes to compare prices. A lot of e-stores guarantee the lowest price, and they also make exchanges or refund your money when you are not satisfied with a product. Many people think e-shopping isn't safe, but that's not true. You need to choose well-known and secure websites. And you don't have to use a credit card because there are other ways to pay without giving personal information.

I usually buy electronic stuff, accessories for my bike, and sports clothes. I am never disappointed with the things I buy. Only once, I exchanged a bicycle helmet because it was too small. But that wasn't a problem. I think that I save money this way, because I only buy what I want. I don't spend money on things that I don't need.

Writing Corner

- In informal writing, the subject you can refer to any person or people in general.
You can save time when you shop online, but you can't see the product in person.
When you shop in a store, you can try clothes on before you buy them.

B. Complete the chart with notes about the advantages and disadvantages of shopping in a store and shopping online. What do you prefer? Why?

	Advantages	Disadvantages
Shopping in a store
Shopping online
My preference / Why

C. Compare shopping in a store and shopping online. Write about the advantages and disadvantages of each. Say what you prefer. Use your notes from the chart and ideas from this unit.

Things to do in Paris

Eiffel Tower ►

The Eiffel Tower is one of the world's most popular and well-known sites. It is named after its architect, Gustave Eiffel, and was built in 1889 for the Universal Exposition. The tower is 1,062 feet (324 meters) high and offers fantastic views of the city. Very often, visitors have to wait in line to take the elevator to the observation deck. But the wait is worth it. At night, the tower itself becomes a beautifully illuminated sculpture. The Eiffel Tower is the most-visited building in the world. It welcomes around 7 million visitors per year.

The City of Light

◀ The Louvre

The Louvre was originally a royal palace. In 1516, Leonardo da Vinci came to France as a painter for the Royal Court, and brought with him the painting of Mona Lisa. The king acquired it, and it became part of the royal collection. Today the painting stands in the Louvre in a climate-controlled enclosure behind bulletproof glass. In the 1600s, the Louvre was a palace that contained art and rich decorations, and it only opened as a museum in 1793. The renovation of the museum in 1981 made it even more beautiful, and a pyramid was built as an entrance. Today, the Louvre is the world's largest museum and possesses the world's largest and richest collection of art and antiques from around the world.

Arc de Triomphe and the Champs Elysées

The Arc de Triomphe is a magnificent site at the end of the Champs Elysées, and one of the most famous monuments of Paris. Napoleon I ordered the construction of the monument in 1806 to celebrate his conquests. He got the idea from the triumphal arches of the emperors in ancient Rome. The Arc de Triomphe is a landmark in Paris because of its size and beauty.

From the Arc de Triomphe, you can enjoy a walk along the Champs Elysées. There are many shops, restaurants, and cafés along this boulevard. Be sure you stop off at a crêpe stand on one of the side streets. The chocolate crêpes are absolutely wonderful!

Seine River Tours

Boat tours along the Seine run throughout the day and evening. Many include lunch or dinner. The boats depart from the Pont de l'Alma (on the Right Bank) or from the foot of the Eiffel Tower (on the Left Bank). You can see many attractions on the trip, such as the Île de la Cité in the middle of the river as well as some of Paris's famous bridges.

F READING

Read the story.

I'm Ahmed from Riyadh. Last summer, my older brother and I went to Sudan. My brother works for a charity that gives healthful food and school supplies to children there. They do fantastic work, but not many people know about it.

His charity asked me to make a website for them so people could read about their work and help by giving money. I spent eight weeks in Sudan altogether. For the first two weeks, I traveled to different villages to learn about the charity. I was excited to help my brother and became proud of his work. Then, I went back to the capital city, Khartoum, and I designed and tested the new website. It was a success! Lots more people are giving money now to help the Sudanese children.

It was an amazing experience. I met a lot of new people and lived in a different culture. After I went back to Saudi Arabia, my parents said I could do the same work from home. So, I discovered two other charities and designed websites for them. I love the work. Now I know what I want to do after college.

Hi Saeed,

Thanks for your email. How amazing! A summer vacation to Malaysia and a trip to the rainforest! It's one of the most spectacular places in the world! My brother also says that Malaysia has some of the most beautiful beaches.

We have vacation plans, too. I'm going skiing with my family in June! The most surprising thing is that we only have to go to Dubai. The indoor ski resort is open all year. It's the largest indoor snow park in the world, and the mall has some of the best shopping and entertainment.

I have an idea. Maybe we can spend a weekend together in October. We wanted to go to the desert last year, but we didn't get there. It's just a short bus ride from your home and from my home. Why don't we go camping there? It's more relaxing than climbing a mountain or skiing. And it's still a fun adventure! And the weather is cooler in the fall. Call me when you get back.

Best regards,
Rashid
